Option A:

- you have been receiving Commonwealth income support payments for a continuous period of at least 26 weeks; and
- you are able to demonstrate to the trustee that you are unable to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses.

Option B

- you have been receiving Commonwealth income support payments for a cumulative period of 39 weeks since reaching your preservation age* (refer to the table on the right); and

LIMITS ON AMOUNTS RELEASED

By law, the trustee can only release a maximum of $10,000 (before tax) in any 12 month period if you have not yet reached your preservation age* plus 39 weeks. Only one payment can be made in any 12 month period. The minimum amount is normally $1,000 or your total benefit if less than $1,000 (before tax is deducted). This restriction does not apply if you are over your preservation age* plus 39 weeks and qualify under Option B.

GAINFULLY EMPLOYED

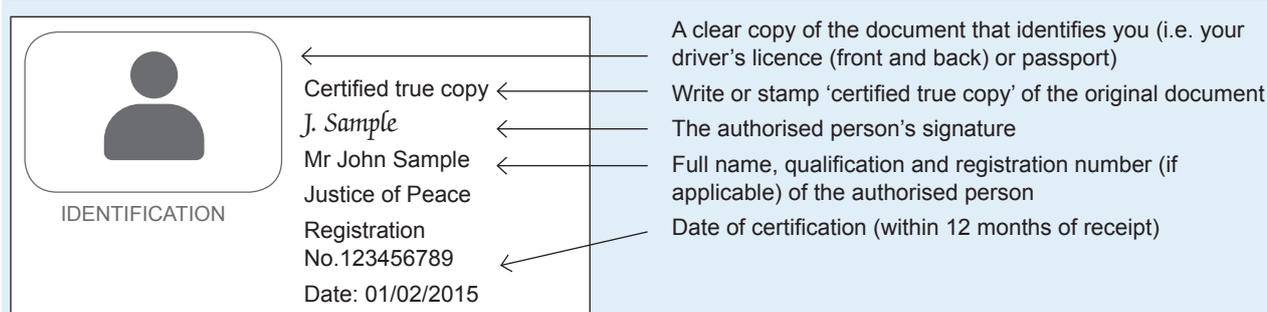

Gainfully employed means employed or self-employed for gain or reward in any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment for at least 10 hours per week.

Provide proof of your identity (ID) and a statutory declaration

You will need to provide certified proof of your identity together with a completed statutory declaration (available at the end of this form). The easiest way to do this is as follows:

- photocopy your current driver's licence (front and back) or passport
- complete the statutory declaration (but do not sign it)
- take the photocopies of your ID and the original of the partly completed statutory declaration to Australia Post* or your local Police station
- ask them to certify your ID and witness your statutory declaration.

The person certifying your ID documents will include the following details on the copy(ies):

* To be able to certify your ID document(s) and witness your statutory declaration, the Australia Post employee must be a permanent employee of the Australian Postal Corporation with 5 or more years of continuous service in an office supplying postal services to the public. Australia Post will charge a small fee.

A Police Officer, Sheriff or Sheriff's Officer can certify your ID and witness your statutory declaration.

Alternatively, you can refer to the Completing Proof of Identity fact sheet on the fund's website at www.crescentwealth.com.au/super for a list of other people who can certify your ID document(s). Please refer to the following website for further information about who can witness a Commonwealth statutory declaration – www.ag.gov.au/Publications/Pages/Statutorydeclarationsignatorylist.aspx.

If you don't have a driver's licence or passport

You will need to provide a certified copy of one document from each of the following groups:

LIST A

- Birth certificate or birth extract¹
- Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth
- Pension card issued by the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) that entitles the person to financial benefits

AND

If you have changed your name, you must provide a certified copy of the relevant name change document¹, for example, a marriage certificate, deed poll, decree nisi/divorce order or change of name certificate issued by the Births Deaths and Marriages Registration office.

Signing on behalf of another person

If you are signing on behalf of the applicant you will need to provide the following:

- A certified copy of the Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney; and
- A certified copy of the appropriate proof of identity for the holder of the Guardianship or Power of Attorney; and
- A certified copy of the appropriate proof of identity of the applicant.

Provide your Tax File Number (if you haven't already done so)

Providing your Tax File Number (TFN)

There may be tax implications if you have not yet provided, or choose not to provide, your TFN. Whilst it is not compulsory to provide your TFN, not doing so could cost you in the following ways:

- you may have paid more tax than necessary on super contributions made for you by your employer (including SG, salary sacrifice and other contributions) in this financial year. This additional tax can be reversed if you provide your TFN to the fund before the end of the financial year, or your earlier payment from the fund. Although you may be able to claim back this additional tax if you later provide your TFN, time limits and other rules may apply, which may affect the size of any refund.

- you may pay additional tax on your super payout. However it might be possible to claim this back when lodging your tax return.
- you may miss out on any government Super Co-contributions for which you may be eligible; and
- you may have difficulty locating your super in the future, should you lose contact with your fund(s).

If you ask us to use your TFN as proof of identity, we will validate your TFN with the Australian Tax Office. If your TFN is not valid, you will need to provide proof of identify and your super payout will be delayed.

If you are uncertain as to whether or not you have provided your TFN, you can check by logging into your online super account at www.crescentwealth.com.au/super or call us on 1300 926 626 if you have any questions.
